Sweden Cultural Tours

Tour 1: Stockholm Old Town and Vasa Museum

Stockholm is widely acknowledged as one of the world's most beautiful cities and is often called the Venice of Scandinavia. Stockholm is built up on 14 islands. No fewer than 57 bridges connect the islands with each other. Your guide will take you for a walk through the Old Town showing you the highlights of this wonderful part of Stockholm. Afterwards you make your way to Djurgården where you will visit the Vasa battleship.

Tour 2: Stockholm City Hall, Riddarholmen, and Lake Mälaren

The City Hall's special hand-cut brick facades and imposing square tower capped by three golden crowns are an example of a magnificent work by artists and craftsmen from all over Sweden. You will be guided through the huge glass-domed Blue Hall where the Nobel Prize banquets are held and the Golden Hall, covered with striking mosaics. You finish the tour with one of the best ways to see Stockholm, by boat.

Optional Tour 3: Royal residence of the Swedish King and Queen, Drottningholm Palace (at an additional cost)

Just half an hour from Stockholm city center, the wealth and beauty of a glorious past unfolds before your eyes during this exploration of Drottningholm Palace. Considered the best-preserved example of an 18th-century palace in Sweden, and nearby Court Theatre. See the magnificently decorated State Apartments and take a stroll through the Baroque park, which is graced with statues, fountains, pretty lawns and a large variety of trees.

Tour 4: Uppsala City and Uppsala Domkyrka

Uppsala is known for Uppsala University, founded in the 15th century. Visit Uppsala Domkyrka which is located between the University Hall and the Fyris river in the center of Uppsala, Sweden. Uppsala Domkyrka (Cathedral) is the seat of the Archbishop of Uppsala and the burial place of Swedish King Gustav Vasa. Lunch will be served in Uppsala for the entire group. Drive by Uppsala Old Town and the three mounds. Originally there were between 2,000 and 3,000 mounds in the area but most have become farmland, gardens and quarries. After excavation they were found to be tombs.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Each ensemble has been specifically recommended or referred to us by music directors in the profession, or by one of the more than 850 guest conductors who have appeared on our series since 1984.

2 For choral concerts, is it required that music be prepared prior to arrival?

Yes. Choruses or chorus members who are not thoroughly prepared will not be allowed to rehearse or perform in the concert.

Schedules (and rehearsal locations) are published 45 days in advance of your arrival. Please refer to the general residency schedule contained in this document for approximate rehearsal and tour times.

4 When can we purchase air tickets and other reservations?

5 How can we request ADA accommodations?

You can request accommodations by contacting midam@midamerica-music.com.

Concerts are promoted extensively through local press and social media, along with hundreds of public and private business sources in each location. This coverage, as well as efforts for press coverage in ensembles’ home locations are led by Andrea Niederman, our Director of Public Relations, Publications, and Audience Development and her team.

8 Are there any scholarship opportunities available for groups or individuals that need financial assistance?

Substitutions and Travel Insurance

Your ensemble must be paid in full prior to your arrival to the destination country. Once received, all payments made to MidAm

International are non-refundable. This applies to any individual or group who has made any payments. In addition, should an individual cancel participation, all deposits/payments are forfeited and non-transferrable to the remaining group balance. Forfeited deposits may only be used for substitutions on a one-to-one basis. Therefore, cancellation insurance is strongly recommended. MidAm International does not endorse or recommend any travel insurance company who might provide such insurance to the ensemble. Please investigate thoroughly through your preferred insurance carrier prior to your initial deposit.

It is recommended that any groups (10 or more) looking to purchase tickets collectively contact Nanette, their representative, at MAP@chaitravel.com or 973-200-4786, and have her investigate an airfare on your behalf. You are under no obligation to take the airfare she proposes. Please do not purchase anything without getting a "go ahead" from MidAm International. A valid passport is required, and it must remain valid for at least six months beyond the final day of the residency. All travelers (U.S. citizen or non-U.S. citizen) should inquire with the appropriate embassy or consulate regarding entry requirements.
